

Tall Antique Side Cabinet, English, Ash, Book Cupboard, Hall, Lounge, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25718

This is an antique side cabinet. An English, ash two-door book cupboard, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

- A handsome piece distinguished by its striking ash stocks and excellent practical capacity.

- Striking use of select ash, presenting fine grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Pair of field panel doors, the right-hand door hosting a brass drop pull
- Doors open wide to reveal a trio of shelves, adjustable or removable to suit

- Shelf depth of 32cm, capable of accommodating sizeable books or files
- Door engraved with the furniture repository mark for White & Co of Shrewsbury, established 1870

- Refined appearance well suited to discrete placement within a hall or lounge

A delightful and versatile Victorian side cabinet, offering generous storage and a bold, naturally figured appearance. Ideal for study, hallway or living room use, where its rich ash hues and practical shelving can be fully appreciated. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home
