

Antique Turner's Chair, English, Oak, Old Saxon, Elbow Seat, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25801

This is an antique turner's chair. An English, oak Old Saxon elbow seat, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

A fascinating example in the John Starkey Warwick style, offering superb form, characterful stocks and sculptural appeal.

- Select oak stocks present fine grain interest with deep caramel hues
- Distinctive in the manner of the 'Old Saxon' chair, rich with historical influence
- Displays a desirable aged patina and remains in good order throughout
- Superb triangular motif to the form, crafted from impressively thick stocks
- Striking geometric engravings adorn the back rest, with cupped carvings to the edge
- Bobbin turned arms meeting robust supports of approximately 2.75" diameter
- Standing upon substantial turned legs, united with rolled stretcher rails
- Front rails arranged in a pair, adding further stability and decorative interest
