

Antique Surgeon Square Picture, Edinburgh, Art, Medical Interest, Late Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25820

This is an antique hospital engraving. A Scottish, framed lithograph of medical interest, dating to the Victorian period and later, circa 1900.

- A fine architectural and historical study of one of Edinburgh's most celebrated medical institutions

- Appealing period engraving depicting Surgeon Square in the Scottish capital
- Set within a later, tasteful frame with ebonised and gilt finish
- Presented behind clear, bright protective glass
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout

- Scene originally engraved circa 1829 by Thomas Shepherd
- Strong architectural detail with excellent clarity to the hospital frontage
- Dressed to the rear with hanging wire for ease of wall mounting
- Ideal for collectors of medical history or those with personal or professional links to Surgeon Square
