

Antique Spirits Table, English, Burr Maple, Glasses Stand, Teapoy, William IV

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25766

This is an antique spirits table. An English, burr maple and walnut decanter & glasses stand or teapoy, dating to the William IV period, circa 1835. An exceptional drawing room drinks stand of superb craftsmanship, and rich visual appeal.

- Presents a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Crafted in burr maple and walnut with exceptional figuring
- Gorgeous stocks present fine grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Dashing circular top with a refined tapered drum form

- Hinged lid opens to a velvet lined interior in rich plum
- Tasteful brocade trim accentuates the interior circumference
- Pleasingly deep interior, ideal for storing tumblers or glasses
- Flat top well suited for presenting a decanter of favourite spirits

- Dressed with an inset brass-lined lock – in working order, key present

Search London Fine for #25766 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 40cm (15.75")

Max Depth: 46cm (18")

Max Height: 72.5cm (28.5")

Internal Diameter: 27cm (10.75")

Internal Height: 12cm (4.75")

LIST PRICE

£3,950.00

