

Antique Wall Gong, English, Oak, Bronze, Dinner Chime, Art Nouveau, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25809
This is an antique wall gong. An English, oak and bronze dinner chime in Art Nouveau taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Delightful Art Nouveau piece, with an elegant form and finish
- Displays a desirable, lightly time-worn appearance
- Striking bronze support arm with a prominent scrolled gong support
- Mounted upon an oak backplate with warm caramel hues
- Hand beaten bronze gong suspended upon a leather strap
- Presents a prominent tone, ideal for catching the attention of guests
- Replete with cork ball striker upon a turned beech handle
- Integrated striker rest resides at the base of the mount

This is a fascinating antique wall gong, with an elegant appearance. A charming Art Nouveau piece, delivered ready to mount.

Search London Fine for #25809 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 36cm (14.25")
- Max Depth: 18cm (7")
- Max Height: 72.5cm (28.5")
- Gong Diameter: 36cm (14.25")
- Backplate Width: 16.5cm (6.5")
- Backplate Depth: 18cm (7")
- Backplate Height: 72.5cm (28.5")

