

Vintage Wildlife Picture Trio, Australian Interest, Framed Prints, Animal Art

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25790

This is a trio of vintage Australian wildlife pictures. An English, framed print of a Koala, Kangaroo and Emu, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1990.

- Skilfully observed and sketched by Zimbabwean artist Cleta Marsden-Huggins in the mid 20th century
- Quality framed prints from a UK gallery in the late 1980s, numbered and dated to the rear
- Printed on good quality stock, with a natural buff hue that hosts the study of each subject
- A trio of beloved indigenous Australian species, sketched with good eye for detail
- The theme of each picture shows an adult with examples of their offspring
- Endearing, maternal nature from the Joey in the pouch, to the koala cub upon its mother's back
- Three chicks dance around the feet of their Emu mother amongst short grass
- Latin names given along with the common name to the bottom corner
- Each featuring the signature of the artist to the opposite corner
