

Antique Silver Presentation Table, English, Console, Hall, Georgian, Circa 1780

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25770

This is an antique silver presentation table. An English, mahogany console or hall table, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1780.

- Superb example with fine age and distinction
- Displays a desirable aged patina and a lightly time-worn appearance
- Select stocks present fine grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Useful tray edge further accentuated with castellated corner motif
- Apron hosts a drawer to the front fascia, accentuated with cockbeaded detail
- Dressed with a trio of brass drop handles over shaped backplates
- Raised upon a quartet of tall, slender cabriole legs
- Each terminates in delightful pad feet

This is a wonderful antique silver presentation table, with appealing colour, fine craftsmanship and a gently aged appearance. Ideal for the lounge, drawing room or hall. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
