

Tall Antique Architect's Riser Desk, English, Metamorphic, Cartographer, Regency

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25851

This is an antique lead architect's riser desk. An English, mahogany draughtsman or cartographer's metamorphic table, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Exceptional craftsmanship for the discerning architect or cartographer
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Select stocks present striking colour and fine grain interest
- A grand piece, with marvellous flexibility for multiple disciplines
- Dual-fold riser top a hallmark of this fine professional desk
- First rising to an angle, resting upon graduated nacelles upon the frame
- Once raised, the writing slope articulates to a near horizontal angle
- Each piece can be positioned in a range of heights and angles for convenience
- Top surface replete with a pair of removable document rests
