

Antique Fire Back, English Carolean Revival Fireplace Reflector, Early Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25413

This is an antique fire back. An English, cast iron fireplace reflector in Carolean and maritime taste, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. An appealing fireside decoration with charming nautical appeal.

- Substantial cast iron with consistent tonality, presenting well within the hearth
- Well defined relief of a crowned anchor, complete with rope detail for distinctive maritime charm
- Symbolism alludes to the Admiralty of the British Navy, enriched with the Royal Monogram of Charles I
- Robust and fire-ready, ideal for enhancing heat reflection and protecting the back of the fireplace
- Fine decorative element when not in use, adding period interest to any room

This is a superb Carolean-inspired maritime fire back, rich in naval heritage and Victorian craftsmanship. Fine decorative appeal for the home or institution. Delivered ready to display.
