

Antique Cocktail Cabinet, English, Counterweighted Bar, Albert Barker, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25849

This is an antique cocktail cabinet. An English, mahogany and boxwood counterweighted dry bar, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1895.

- Exceptional cabinetry with a striking appearance and superb mechanical interest
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good original order
- Select stocks present fine grain interest and rich russet hues
- Lighter boxwood inlay adds a sophistication to the finish throughout

- A treat of functionality, the fold-out top activating the counterweighted serving area
- Concealed until required, a glass caddy rises from within the frame at the back of the cabinet

- Hosting a pair of tumbler glasses within a brass stanchion, beneath a rack for eight shot glasses
- Each side of the folding top hosts a recessed bottle platform with raised plinth behind

- Upper lock mechanism engraved for Albert Barker, maker and silversmith to Queen Victoria – key absent
