

Vintage Dairy Set, English Copper, Milk Churn, Pail, Country Kitchen, Circa 1950

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25934

This is a vintage dairy set. An English, copper milk churn and pail, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1950.

- Appealing country kitchen or courtyard duo
- Displaying a desirable aged patina, time-worn with commercial use
- Quality copper presents deep amber tonality throughout
- Comprising a milk churn and a smaller pail with handle
- Churn with tightly fitting lid, engraved with Goodwin's Dairies of Shropshire
- Relief cast name to the circumference of the supplier, United Dairies
- Body of the churn engraved with P D (C) L - St Erth, Hayle (Cornwall)
- Pair of rolled carry handles, with a tare weight of 33 lb engraved below one side
- The pail featuring an articulated cast iron handle for ease of movement

Search London Fine for #25934 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Churn Width: 34.5cm (13.5")
- Churn Depth: 33cm (13")
- Churn Height: 72.5cm (28.5")
- Pail Width: 31cm (12.25")
- Pail Depth: 31cm (12.25")
- Pail Height: 38cm (15")
- Height to Handle: 53cm (20.75")

LIST PRICE

£965.00

