

Antique 10 Division Stick Stand, English, Brass Hallway Umbrella Rack, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25769

This is an antique ten division stick stand. An English, brass clerk's office or reception hall umbrella rack, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. With brightwork charm and robust form, this practical piece is well-suited to both the refined home or institutional interior.

- Attractive Edwardian umbrella stand with timeless utility and decorative appeal
- Crafted in polished brass, displaying a striking golden tonality and time worn, commensurate with use
- Comprises a set of 10 upper divisions, ideal for umbrellas, walking sticks or canes
- Raised brass finials to each corner add an elegant finishing touch
- Inset drip tray ideal for catching water run off from umbrellas
- Suitable for placement in the hallway, boot room or office reception
- Offers period authenticity with enduring, low-maintenance function
- Substantial piece, with a reassuring weight of 11.1kg (24.47 lb)

This antique brass umbrella rack delivers a wonderful balance of Edwardian character and daily practicality, making it a superb choice for the heritage reception hall or professional interior. Delivered ready for the home or institution.

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 42.5cm (16.75")
- Max Depth: 23cm (9")
- Max Height: 62cm (24.5")
- Division Width: 7cm (2.75")
- Division Depth: 8.5cm (3.25")

LIST PRICE

£795.00

