

Antique Coopered Stick Loop, English, Victorian Oak Country House Umbrella Stand

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25982

This is an antique coopered stick loop. An English, oak and copper country house umbrella stand, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Pleasingly substantial country house stand, of good height and perfect for entrance hall

- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good original order
- Select oak staves tightly coopered and showing fine grain interest
- Abundance of medullary rays catch the light throughout

- Tightly bound, holding the long antique staves securely
- Copper banding presents warm amber, reflective hues
- Tapering slightly along its form and standing upon a stout circular foot

This is a superb antique coopered stick loop, ideal for large umbrellas or a selection of canes and walking sticks in a reception hall. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home or institution.
