

Antique Chess Board Set, English Painted Glass, Pine, Parlour Game, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25932

This is an antique chess board set. An English, painted glass and pine game with boxwood pieces, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Striking hand-painted board with a cased set of fine pieces
- Presenting a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Stained pine board frame with deep chestnut hues and robust form
- Quality glass panel, reverse painted with cream and mottled hues
- Superb playing surface, with an eye-catching checkerboard effect
- Delightful pieces crafted in the Regency revival Calvert Pattern
- Crafted in boxwood, with a natural and ebonised finish respectively
- The pieces reside within a quality mahogany case, for storage or travel

This is a fascinating antique chess board and pieces, with a delightful hand finished charm. Ideal for lovers of the game or as decorative interest. Delivered ready for the home or institution.
