

Tall Antique Victorian Taxidermy Dome, English, Glass Collector's Showcase, 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26005

This is a tall antique taxidermy dome. An English, glass and ebonised mahogany collector's display or ornamental showcase, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A charming display dome of fine proportion and elegant presentation, ideal for prized ornaments or natural history exhibits.

- Quality Victorian craftsmanship, combining clear glass with a mahogany base
- Generous 18 inch display height, suitable for medium-sized exhibits
 - Bright, clear glass in good antique order, offering excellent visibility for interior display pieces
 - Select mahogany base displays a fine ebonised finish
- Inset suede leather pad provides a soft, protective surface for valuable ornaments
 - Raised upon a trio of squat bun feet with protective covers, providing a stable and elegant stance
 - Ideal for taxidermy, botanical arrangements, or curiosity cabinet displays
 - Displays a desirable aged patina, consistent with careful Victorian preservation

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 22.5cm (8.75")
 Max Depth: 22.5cm (8.75")
 Max Height: 52.5cm (20.75")
 Internal Diameter: 19.5cm (7.75")
 Internal Height: 47cm (18.5")

LIST PRICE

£595.00

This is a delightful tall antique display dome offering excellent proportion, clarity and presentation for collectors or decorative interiors. Delivered ready to enjoy.

+44 (0) 207 1833 511

Search London Fine for #26005, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

London Fine Ltd
The Antique Village

The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk

E. & O. E.