

Vintage Port Decanter, English, Glass, Silver Label, Spirit Bottle, Mid Century

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25909

This is a vintage port decanter. An English, cut glass and silver spirit bottle, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1950. A refined and elegant decanter, enhanced with an antique silver label and appealing decorative detail.

- A fine example with a charming Regency period silver label
- Displays a desirable, gently time-worn patina
- Well suited for the presentation of port or fine spirits
- Quality cut glass body presents a finely detailed decorative pattern
- Elegant form with balanced proportion and crafted with care and attention to detail
- Dressed with a hallmarked silver 'Port' label, suspended at the neck
- Maker's mark present for Charles Reily & George Storer
- Hallmarked at the London Assay Office, with date letter N for 1828
- Faceted stopper sits neatly within the gently flared rim

Search London Fine for #25909 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 11cm (4.25")
Max Depth: 11cm (4.25")
Max Height: 33.6cm (13.25")

LIST PRICE

£695.00

