

Antique Poodle Tobacco Jar, English, Fruitwood, Dog, Treen, Figural, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26013

This is an antique poodle tobacco jar. An English, fruitwood dog-shaped treen, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Fascinating treen ware, with a charming begging dog form
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in lightly time-worn, original order
- Carved fruitwood presented in a superb poodle form
- Accentuated with glass eyes, ruffled coat detail and shaved body
- Head acts as a lid, hinged for access to the steel lined interior
- Small lid sits above the tobacco once added to the sleeve
- Ideal for decorative interest or as an accoutrement to a smoking lounge

This is a delightful antique poodle tobacco jar, presenting great character and distinctive craftsmanship. Delivered ready for the home.
