

Vintage Map, British North America, Canadian, Reproduction, Framed Cartography

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26025

This is a large vintage map of British North America. A Canadian, official department reproduction of the 19th century original by John Arrowsmith, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960.

Full Title: British North America - By Permission Dedicated To The Honourable Hudsons Bay Company, Containing the Latest Information which their Documents Furnish — by their Obedient Servant, J. Arrowsmith.

- Charming state issued reproduction with field-used appeal
- Displays a desirable aged patina, mounted from a lightly used example
- Supplied by the Canadian Department of Energy, Mines and Resources
- Tasteful later frame, in pine with warm caramel hues
- Quality braided metal hanging wire to the rear for ease of mounting

• Gives impressive detail, being one of the first maps to accurately display the Northwest Passage

• Originally published in London, December 1834 and subject to a quality reproduction here

- Hand coloured border detail using different hues to separate each region
- Pair of scales given, one for Geographical Miles and the other for UK Miles
