

Tall Antique Famille Rose Vase, Chinese, Ceramic, Qing, Centrepiece, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26016

This is a tall antique Famille Rose vase. A Chinese, ceramic decorative baluster urn, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- A treat of visual interest and of good proportion for use as a centrepiece
- Displaying a desirable aged patina, in good antique order throughout
- Ceramic shows a crisp white ground, with applied gilt finish
- The body decorated with twelve panels, alternating between figural and nature scenes
- To the front and rear, a vibrant, colourful court scene of several seated figures
- Secondary panels offer a bountiful tree visited by colourful birds of paradise and butterflies
- Gold coloured vestigial handles in the form of Oriental lions
- Generous opening diameter ideal for presenting a generous bouquet of flowers

This is a charming antique Famille Rose vase, profusely finished in fine detail and of pleasing proportion. Delivered ready to display.
