

Antique Companion Set, Three Fireside Tools, English, Steel, Brass, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25915

This is an antique companion set of three fireside tools. An English, steel and brass pair of tongs, poker and coal shovel, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870.

- Excellent craftsmanship with a striking appearance - ideal for the grand fireplace
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout, gently weathered commensurate with age
- Superb brass handles presents warm golden tones and a distinctive barley twist form
- Quality polished nickel steel bedazzles with a bright tonal appearance
- Set comprises of a pair of tongs, a hearth shovel and robust poker
- Pierced fretwork detail tastefully accentuating the shovel pan

This is a striking companion set of fireside tools, suitable for all fuel types and an elegant addition to the fireside. Delivered ready to use.

Search London Fine for #25915 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Tongs Width: 8cm (3.25")
Tongs Depth: 3cm (1.25")
Tongs Height: 73.5cm (29")
Shovel Width: 14.5cm (5.75")
Shovel Depth: 3cm (1.25")
Shovel Height: 75.5cm (29.75")
Poker Diameter: 3.5cm (1.5")
Poker Height: 74cm (29.25")

LIST PRICE

£945.00

