

Antique Cornish Coal Shaker, English, Copper, Fireside, Umbrella Hoop, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25978

This is an appealing antique Cornish coal shaker. An English, copper fireside hod dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Offering fine patination and period character, this charming piece would make a superb addition to the traditional fireplace or country home interior.

- Attractive Victorian coal hod, displaying a wonderfully time-worn appearance
- Delightful handcrafted appeal, showcasing late 19th century fireside craftsmanship
- Presents a rich, inviting patina, commensurate with age and careful use
- Crafted in quality copper, presenting bright amber hues throughout
- Gently tapering form with a rolled rim and wider base for stability
- Dressed with a pair of handles for ease of carriage and pouring
- Ideal for practical use beside the hearth or as a decorative period accent
- Suitable for all fuel types, including coal, or smaller logs and kindling
- Could also serve as a distinctive stick or umbrella hoop

Search London Fine for #25978 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 21cm (8.25")
Max Depth: 25.5cm (10")
Max Height: 55cm (21.75")

LIST PRICE

£395.00

