Antique Candle Pricket, English, Ebonised, Candlestick, Centrepiece, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26057
This is an antique candle pricket. An English, ebonised oak and fruitwood candlestick, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800.

- Fascinating interior decorator's piece with a delightful patina
- Presents a desirably time-worn finish, commensurate with age and use
- Ebonised oak and fruitwood skilfully turned with carved relief detail
- Accentuated with gilt paint, providing a pleasing contrast

- Wide upper rim hosts a candle nozzle diameter of 10cm (4'')
- Diameter suitable for a large ecclesiastical candle, held in place upon a prominent pricket
- Standing upon a trio of aged feet, the front lion's paw foot mostly complete

This is a striking antique candle pricket, with an eye-catching weathered appearance. Of centrepiece proportion and wonderfully distinctive. Delivered ready to display.
