

Pair of Antique Country House Captain's Chairs, English, Smoker's Bow, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26077

This is a pair of antique country house captain's chairs. An English, beech and elm smoker's bow or elbow seat, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Superb country house appeal with the classic bow form
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good original order
- Select beech and elm stocks show excellent grain interest throughout
- Each graced with appealing caramel hues to the delightful form
- The upper rails crowned with a prominent arched and bowed back rest
- Baluster turned spindles rise obliquely supporting the striking horseshoe armrest
- Each arm terminates in out-turned scrolled hand grips
- Comfortable saddle squabs nicely sculpted with defined leg scallops
- Standing upon a quartet of stout baluster legs united by double 'H' stretchers
