

Antique Estate Chapel Organist's Stool, Scottish, Walnut Music Riser, William IV

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26094

This is an antique estate chapel organist's stool. A Scottish, walnut and leather music riser stool in Gothic Revival taste, dating to the William IV period, circa 1835.

- Fascinating example, with an expressive carved appearance
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good antique order
- Select walnut presents fine grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Waxed leather stool finished in a deep navy blue with a cross hatch pattern

• Octagonal cushion set upon a riser, with a counter-clockwise action adding 11cm to the height

- Delightfully broad barley twist support column houses the brass riser when lowered
- Collar with scroll motif unites the column with the highly distinctive octagonal base
- An octet of pad feet, each adorned with a relief carved cabochon
- Gothic overtones redolent of ecclesiastic furniture popularised by Augustus Pugin

(1812 - 1852)
