

Vintage Map, Lincoln, Nottingham, English, After Christopher Saxton, Cartography

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26107

This is a vintage dual county map of Lincoln and Nottingham. An English, framed reproduction of the 16th century original by Christopher Saxton, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1970.

- Quality reproduction on board, after Christopher Saxton's landmark 16th century map
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Presented within a later, quality frame with gilt and ebonised finish
- Presented behind clear, bright glass with hanging wire to rear for ease of mounting
- Carries the coat of arms for Elizabeth I, who commissioned Saxton's atlas
- Published in 1579, within the Atlas of the Counties of England and Wales
- In high detail for the time, with both counties represented by rivers, hills and settlements
- Represents distance in Latin as Scala Milliarium, accentuated between a set of compass legs
