Vintage 18th Century Street Map, London, Covent Garden, The Strand, Cartography

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26135
This is a vintage 18th century street map of London. An English, framed reproduction showing the parishes of St Clement's Danes and St Mary Savoy, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1980.
Full title: A Mapp of the Parish of St Paul's Covent Garden, taken from the last Survey.

- Detailed London street interest, as it stood when surveyed in the mid 18th century
- Presented behind clear bright glass and mounted within a tasteful blue card border
- Displays a desirable aged patina, with some light marking to frame
- Dressed to the rear with mounting wire for ease of hanging

- Title given within a decorative cartouche to the to of the map
- Table of references lists 15 points of interest
- Maps the produce and theatrical heartland of Covent Garden
- It was also notable for its concentration of coffee houses and taverns
- Taken from John Strype's 1755 survey of London & Westminster
