

Antique London Street Map, Aldersgate, English, Framed, The Barbican, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26150

This is an antique London street map. An English, framed and hand-coloured map showing the ward of Aldersgate, dating to the Georgian period and later, circa 1754.

Full title: Aldersgate Ward with its Divisions into Precincts and Parishes and the Liberty of St Martin's le Grand, according to a New Survey.

- Delightful London interest, as it stood when surveyed in the mid 18th century
- Presented behind clear bright glass and mounted within a tasteful deep green card border
- Displays a desirable aged patina, with a gilt-finished later frame
- Dressed to the rear with mounting wire for ease of hanging
- Title given within a decorative cartouche to the upper part of the map
- Hand coloured for added visual interest and legibility
- Heraldic interest with the family coat of arms for the cartographer William Benn Esquire
- Encompassing Aldersgate Street, Barbican and Trinity Chapel
