

Antique Coffe, English, Oak, Linen Chest, Bay Window Seat, Early Georgian, 1720

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26149

This is an antique coffer. An English, carved oak three panel linen chest or bay window seat, dating to the early Georgian period, circa 1720.

- Fascinating early Georgian coffer with great proportion and finish
- Displays a desirable aged patina, in good original order throughout
- Select oaks stocks present fine grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Ideal for use within a bay window as a distinctive seat base
- Wide top opens upon the original pin hinges with a support rest to the reverse
- Generous internal storage useful for blankets, cushions or other storage
- Fascia arranged as a trio of field panels, framed with relief carved patterns
- Replete with cast iron lock escutcheon — untested, key absent
- The whole raised upon a quartet of robust, square section legs
