

Antique Travel Trunk, English Canvas Case, Military Sporting Interest, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26176

This is an antique travel trunk. An English, canvas and leather gentleman's voyage case with a pair of engraved tankards of military and sporting interest, dating to the Edwardian period and later, circa 1910.

- Fascinating British military and sporting interest with superb personalised detail
- Displays a desirable aged patina, with a gently time-worn nature from careful use
- Quality canvas with leather and press stud construction for an enduring, robust form
- Lid held securely with a sliding clasp lock – untested, key absent

- Stencil name to the lid reads Donovan, for Captain C.H. Donovan, later Major Donovan

- Case decorated with remnants of travel labels, bearing his name before the promotion in rank

- A long-serving member of the British Military, serving in WWII, the Malaya Emergency and Aden

- After being captured as a Prisoner of War, his time with Ghurkas sent him to British Malaya
