

Antique Maid's Fireside Maintenance Set, English, Shovel, Brush, Regency, C.1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26171

This is an antique maid's fireside maintenance set. An English, mahogany and brass morning room hearth shovel and brush set, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Superb hearth tools, beautifully presented for wall mounting
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Quality brass tools present bright golden tonality
- Fine figuring and attractive caramel hues accentuate the plinth
- Tools sit neatly upon attractive brass hooks with scroll and scallop shell motif
- Eye-catching and tactile handles with gadrooned urn and baluster details
- Brush bristles in good condition, keeping a taut, dependable form
- Generous shovel ideal for removing stray coal from the fireplace
- Plinth dressed with a pair of mounting loops for ease of hanging

Search London Fine for #26171 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 30cm (11.75")

Max Depth: 5cm (2")

Max Height: 40cm (15.75")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

