

Antique Inscribed Glastonbury Chair, English, Oak, Gothic Armchair, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26203

This is an antique inscribed Glastonbury chair. An English, oak armchair in Gothic Revival taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

A superb example of the traditional Glastonbury form, this distinguished chair exhibits the Latin dedication as featured on the 16th century original.

- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Quality oak presents fine grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Wonderful exposed joints a bold feature of the Glastonbury form, as are the striking X-frame legs

X-frame legs

- Defined by the distinctive shaped arms, here accentuated with relief carvings

- Latin motto relief carved from left to right down each arm and upon crest rail
- Reads; Sit Laus Deo - Iohannes Arthurus - Monacus Glastonie - Salvat Eum Deus - Da Pacem Dñe

• Translated to English, it honours John Arthur Thorne, the treasurer of Glastonbury Abbey

• It broadly reads as: Praise Be to God, John Arthur, Monk of Glastonbury, May God Save Him, Lord, Give Peace
