This is a vintage county map of Cambridgeshire. An English, atlas reproduction of the Thomas Moule original, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1990.

- Fascinating mid-19th century cartography, reproduced during the late 1980s Moule revival

- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good vintage order
- Presented behind clear, bright glass with a cream card border
- Later frame with gilt border detail and dressed with hanging wire to the reverse

- Superb cartography, as expected of the renowned Thomas Moule (1784 - 1851)
- Gives excellent detail to Cambridgeshire with an appealing artistic flourish
 - Accentuated a flamboyant Neo-Gothic architectural border featuring pillars and cathedral-like spires
- Hand colouring adds borders and distinction to the decorative touches

- Pair of delightful vignettes, showing Ely Cathedral and Wimpole House
