

Antique Sugar Bowl, English, Silver Plate, Table Dish, Montieth Style, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26344

This is an antique sugar bowl. An English, silver plated decorative table dish, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- A delightful late Victorian revival of the 17th century Montieth aesthetic
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Silver plate presents bright tonality and a reflective finish
- Maker's mark to the base for Thomas Latham & Ernest Morton, with EP mark and A1 grade symbol
- The wavy, crenelated rim edge a prominent detail of the Montieth style
- Popular in the Stuart and early Georgian periods, it saw a revival in the late Victorian era
- Further accentuated with engraved scallop shell motif to the fascia
- Standing upon darling hairy paw feet with stylised knees in leaf form

This is a charming antique sugar bowl, with an attractive decorative appearance and bright finish. A treat for the breakfast or dinner table, delivered ready for the home.
