

Long Antique Coffe, English, Oak, Blanket Chest, Period Storage, William III

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26367

This is a long antique four panel coffe. An English, oak blanket or linen chest, dating to the William III period, circa 1700.

- A charming example of early 18th century craftsmanship, offering superb storage
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good, gently time-worn order
- Appealing English oak stocks present fine grain interest throughout, with wisps of medullary rays
- Warm caramel hues dance across the coffe's panels, offering attractive presence
- Four panel lid opening wide upon later hinges, revealing the generous interior
- Lid accentuated with charmingly naive crosshatch engravings between each panel
- Presented in a pleasingly clean order, the interior is ideal for blanket, cushion or other storage needs
- Dressed with a cast iron shield lock escutcheon upon the fascia — lock absent
- Quartet of field panels accentuating the front fascia, with a pair of panels per side
