

Antique Cribbage Board, English, Bronze, Pine, Gaming Peg Base, Victorian, 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26346

This is an antique Cribbage board. An English, bronze and pine gaming peg base, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Charming scoring board with a gently time-worn patina
- Crafted from select pine stocks with fine grain and warm caramel hues
- Bronze peg plate presents bright golden tonality with lasting quality
- Six well-defined peg sections, neatly divided with engraved lines
- Smooth playing surface with tactile finish, pleasing in the hand
- Raised slightly upon domed top screws in lieu of feet
- Traditionally, the peg of choice was matchsticks, readily available in any parlour or tavern

A delightful piece of Victorian gaming history, this antique Cribbage board would make a fine addition to a games collection, as an ideal tabletop accessory, or a thoughtful gift for a card and Cribbage enthusiast. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #26346 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 8cm (3.25")
Max Depth: 27cm (10.75")
Max Height: 3cm (1.25")

LIST PRICE

£195.00

