DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 26381

This is an antique schoolmaster's bell. A Welsh, bronze, brass and beech handled ringer, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Appealing school bell, set upon a charming turned stand
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good original order
- Bronze bell housing presents bright amber tonality
- Golden hues to the brass collar uniting the beech handle
- Cast iron clapper presents a prominent peel, ideal for getting attention
- Engraved with a monogram reading 'JJ'
- Turned base offers a useful and stable platform to rest the bell
- Dressed with a protective baize cushion for placement upon a desk or sideboard

This is a wonderful antique schoolmaster's bell, with a loud tone and eye-catching polished finish. Tactile and substantial in the hand. Delivered ready for the home or institution.
