

Antique Display Cabinet, Edwardian, Walnut, Waring and Gillows Ltd, Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5525

This is an antique display cabinet, an English, Edwardian, walnut, glazed cabinet by Waring and Gillows Ltd dating to the early 20th century, circa 1910.

- Of quality craftsmanship as one would expect from Waring and Gillows
- Mellow, caramel tones to the English walnut
- Grain interest throughout with a desirable aged patina
- The attractive top with a shaped three-quarter gallery
- A shallow frieze beneath displays a foliate carved appliqué
- A pair of four pane glazed display areas flank a central blind cupboard
- The display cupboards accessed from the ends
- All cupboards with working locks and keys
- All cupboards open to reveal a single shelf within
- A serpentine apron beneath in good proportion
- Decorated with an inverted, carved feathered fan appliqué

Search London Fine for #18.5525 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 122cm (48")

Max Depth: 37cm (14.5")

Max Height: 94cm (37")

Shelf Heights Between: 24cm (9.5") visible – 27cm (10.75") max

Find out more about Waring and Gillows Ltd here...

