

Antique Buffet, Scottish Server Cabinet, Mahogany, Mid Victorian c.1870

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 10.1721

This is an antique buffet, a Scottish server cabinet in mahogany dating to the mid Victorian period c.1870.

- Pleasingly patinated and good colour throughout
- Deep russet tones in the generous stocks of choice mahogany
- Raised on a continuous plinth base with rounded corners
- A pair of shaped field panel doors
- Unusually hinging at the outer radius of the corners
- Closing with a dust strip and working lock and key
- A single shelf within divides the space in two
- Mightily robust brackets, two inches thick raise the upper platform
- 'C' scroll in form, pierced with classical and oriental influence
- Lower tier with lipped rear edge detail
- Upper tier featuring double edge moulding detail

Search London Fine for #10.1721 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 122cm (48")
- Max Depth: 51cm (20")
- Upper Counter Height: 109cm (43")
- Rear Up-stand Height: 21cm (8.25")
- Between Counters: 44.5cm (17.5")

LIST PRICE

£1,295.00

