

1930's Vintage Oak Desk by Maggs & Co, English Pedestal Library

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1724 This is a 1930's vintage oak desk by Maggs & Co of Bristol. An English pedestal library table. • Period and original in very good order throughout • The oak with mellow honey tones in a waxed finish • Blind tooled, Rexine inset writing surface • Banks of three graduated drawers flank a central frieze drawer • Mouldings to drawer fronts with keyholes and locks, key absent • Dressed with pendant drop handles over petal back plates • Twin field panel ends • Finished back with ideal for centre room placement • Raised on tapered, square section legs • Bracketed knee-hole finish A classic piece from the early 20th century. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.

Search London Fine for #LFA-1724 or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 152.5cm (60")

Max Depth: 76cm (30")

Max Height: 77cm (30.25") About B. Maggs & Co.

Established in the mid 19th century (1850) in Bristol, England as a manufacturer of beds. The company displayed its iron and brass bedsteads in a showroom at 15 St. Augustine's Parade. It grew to become a more general manufacturer and retailer of furniture, trading from a department store at 70-72 Queen's Road until its closure in the 1970's.

