

Tall Antique Wardrobe, French, Louis XVI Taste, Constantin Potheau Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5895

This is a tall antique wardrobe. A French, mahogany armoire in the Louis XVI taste by renowned cabinet maker Constantin Potheau of Paris and dating to the early 20th century, circa 1910.

- Of superior quality by a fine cabinet maker
- Constantin Potheau, 14 Rue Amelot, Paris
- In select mahogany displaying grain interest
- Crafted in the Louis XVI taste with classical overtones
- Decorated with quality ormolu mounts and beaded trace
- Tall at just over 243cm (95.75") high
- The crown moulding featuring ormolu ribbon over serpentine bar
- Magnificent foliate-cupped finials to the stile heads
- Quality bevelled mirror plate door mounted on pin hinges
- Featuring a working lock and key behind classical escutcheon
- Inside offers voluminous storage and hanging space

Search London Fine for #18.5895 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 139cm (54.75")

Max Depth: 56cm (22")

Max Height: 243cm (95.75")

