

Large Antique Sideboard, French, Bow Front, Oak, Buffet Cabinet, Circa 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6011

This is a large antique sideboard. A French, bow-fronted oak buffet cabinet of country house proportions at over 8 feet long, dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900.

- Select oak displays warm caramel hues in a wax polished finish
- Fine grain interest with wisps of medullary rays
- Good consistent colour and a desirable aged patina
- Richly decorated with carved detail
- Attractive parquetry features on the wide counter top with shaped edge moulding
- A suite of four drawers compliment four opening cupboards beneath
- Dressed with solid brass handles with foliate terminals
- Each cabinet presented with shaped, relief field panels
- Brass escutcheons to each door, with working, double-throw locks, complete with key

- Continuous swagged apron centres upon a carved shell motif
- Raised upon cabriole legs to the front, with square section rear legs

Search London Fine for #18.6011 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 248cm (97.75")

Max Depth: 62cm (24.5")

Max Height: 105cm (41.25")

