

Antique Shop Display Cabinet, English, Victorian Fitting, Ash, Fitting, c.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6006

This is an antique shop display cabinet. An English, Victorian ash showcase shop fitting dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900.

- Select ash gives an air of commercial purpose, typical of Victorian stores
- Showing wonderful biscuits hues with fine grain interest
- Displays a desirable aged patina in a wax polished finish
- Glass is bright and of showcase quality
- A stepped crown moulding sits at the head of the cabinet
- Large rear doors open wide for easy access
- Brass recessed pulls and slide bolt feature on each door
- Brass lined lock bearing the name 'Comyn-Ching London', key absent
- Offering a suite of five, original glass shelves
- Configurable stays for mounting shelves at various positions
- Interior lined in a complimentary, emerald green baize

Search  $\underline{\text{London Fine for } \#18.6006}$  , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 152cm (59.75") Max Depth: 43cm (17") Max Height: 158cm (62.25")

Display Area Width: 138.5cm (54.5") Display Area Depth: 31.5cm (12.5") Display Area Height: 125cm (49.25")

