

Antique Mirrored Wardrobe, English, Edwardian, Mahogany, Boxwood, Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5939

This is an antique mirrored wardrobe. An English, Edwardian, mahogany and boxwood cabinet dating to the early 20th century, circa 1910.

- Craftsmanship in a quality caramel mahogany with a wax polished finish
- Good consistent colour throughout with a desirable aged patina
- Deep crown moulding decorated with boxwood inlays
- A suite of cabinet doors featuring original mirror plates with appealing light foxing
- Field panel door to upper cabinet with inlaid fan medallion
- Central open shelf sits above a suite of three graduated drawers
- Elaborate brass lock escutcheons feature loop handles,
- Brass locks untested as key absent
- Cabinets lined with a deep ivy green fabric and brass fittings
- The drawers delineated with boxwood inlay perimeter
- Smooth sliding and dressed with pairs of drop handles

Search London Fine for #18.5939 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 191.5cm (75.5")

Max Depth: 59.5cm (23.5")

Max Height: 217cm (85.5")

