

Antique French Escritoire

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA1033

This is an unusual antique French escritoire or 'secretary desk'. Dating to c.1850 this continental piece has a country charm and finish with practicality for storage and as a work station. Standing on bracket feet the cabinet features chamfered corner detail with gilt metal embellishment beneath moulded cornice. The lower cupboard is enclosed by field panel doors in a contrasting mahogany finish. The locking upper section is revealed by the baize inlaid fall and features numerous pigeon holes and a locking central cupboard with three drawers beneath. This piece would look fantastic in the home or as a fashionable desk in a period restaurant or boutique hotel. Solid construction and a country finish with working locks.
