

Victorian Garden Antique Wheelbarrow, Planter

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1217 This is an antique, green Victorian gentleman's wheelbarrow. A large and fine example, sturdily constructed from ash, iron bound and strengthened by robust struts, supports and brackets, it carries with it all the hallmarks of a long and useful life giving it a wonderful aged patina. Finished in a cottage garden green, this barrow is still in excellent working order but would serve equally well as a shop display or garden planter. Benefiting from a later pneumatic wheel for comfort. Delivered ready for use.
