

Art Deco Tambour Front Cabinet, c.1930-35

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1222 This is an antique, Art Deco filing cabinet dating to c.1930-35. Displaying classic Art Deco form in the rounded feet and semi-circular base, this tambour fronted cabinet self locks when raised. In the curved top the original key is monogrammed 'FA Morgenroth 128 Corringway London W5'. The well figured oak wraps neatly around the tambour front which is still in excellent working order and drops to reveal a series of nine sliding trays, formed in beech, complete with stops. A classic period piece, perfect for the study, lending style to any paperwork organisation. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
