

Large Vintage Model Titanic, English, Collectible, Model, Ship, Display, Lights

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6127

This is a large vintage model of the Titanic. An English, collectible model of the famous ship with display stand and lighting array, and dating to the 20th century.

The RMS Titanic is modelled here in its prime, with an array of flashing lights operated by a generous length of quality cable. Built in Belfast by Harland and Woolf, it was the largest of three ships operated by White Star Line and never got to complete her maiden voyage across the Atlantic.

- Fine detail and in good order throughout
- Internal lighting system displays a pattern of pulses and static glows
- Lighting array well suited to a museum or institution
- Masts dressed with fine yarn for further appeal
- Featuring the four chimney stacks in bright yellow paint
- Upper deck in white contrasts with the vibrant black over red hull
- Hull features brass portholes and the Titanic name on the bow
- Standing upon a black display stand

This is a large vintage model of the Titanic and one of the most famous ships from history. Delivered ready for the home
