DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6150

This is an antique bergere suite. An English, beech and cane chair and sofa set, dating to the Edwardian period of the early 20th century, circa 1910.

- An elegant suite of fine form and upholstery
- The whole displays a desirable aged patina
- Generous beech frame with fine grain interest
- Rich caramel hues complement the light, golden cloth
 - Traditionally stuffed with cloth in excellent condition - recently professionally upholstered
- Generous seating heights of 50cm (19.75") to the sofa and chair
- Top rail decorated with central carved detail
- Seat-back finished with cane-work in superb, taut, undamaged condition
- Broad, generous arms finished with further cane and rolled tops for comfort
- Gently curving frame cossets the deep, inviting cushions
 - Upholstered base with piped edge delineating the lower apron, with central shell motif
