

Antique Sideboard, English, Rosewood, Dresser, Boxwood Inlay, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6231

This is an antique sideboard. An English, rosewood dresser with boxwood inlay and dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Impressive form and eye-catching detail
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Rosewood resplendent with fine grain interest
- Original, bevelled mirror glass plates in good order
- Classical scroll pediment features at the apex
- Generous square mirror to the centre
- A pair of smaller mirrors with display shelves rising from turned baluster supports
- Boxwood marquetry features on each field panel door
- Dressed with working, brass locks – key present
- Benefiting from attractive original brass lock escutcheons

Search London Fine for #18.6231 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 136.5cm (53.75")

Max Depth: 44.5cm (17.5")

Max Height: 195cm (76.75")

LIST PRICE

£1,650.00

