

Antique Carriage Trunk, American, Spruce, Chest, AE Meek, Circa 1890, Western

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6273

This is an antique carriage trunk. An American, spruce chest by A.E. Meek of Colorado and dating to the late 19th century, circa 1890.

- Period Western appeal with bountiful charm
- Displays a desirable aged patina and original order
- Stocks of spruce radiate a golden hue with fine grain interest
- Embraced by extensive iron bounding
- Stout, staved lid with external strap hinges
- Adorned with double horseshoe rivets and foliate shoulders
- Substantial iron lock plate in working order, key present
- A pair of iron lever clasps add further security
- Maker's mark to the lid reads; A.E. Meek and Co - Manufacturers - Denver, Colo.
- Original, patinated paper illustration inside, bearing further reference to A.E. Meek
- Removable, lidded oddments box opens to store jewellery or personal effects

Search London Fine for #18.6273, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 97.5cm (38.5")

Max Depth: 74cm (29.25")

Max Height: 84cm (33")

